

STERLING "Smooth" FORBES BASKETBALL CAMP

Camps are directed by former Harlem Globetrotter Sterling "Smooth" Forbes and a qualified staff of experienced basketball coaches and players.

The camp is tailored to meet the needs and development of each camper. There is a 10 to 1 camper to instructor ratio, and instructors are experienced in teaching both boys and girls of various skill levels. Much of the staff includes local High School coaches and players.

Our wish is for every camper to learn the fundamentals of basketball, meet and make new friends, and HAVE FUN!!!
